COFFEE TOUR

In the area around our lodge grows some of the best Tanzanian coffee!

On our walk through private small-scale “shambas” (fields) of the local Wameru people you learn many interesting facts about growing, harvesting and processing coffee. You will also experience how to wash, roast and grind the beans the traditional way.

After a typical Tanzanian lunch at one of the “shambas”, you will continue walking through several plantations and an indigenous forest; if you’re lucky you might see some colobus monkeys or other primates along your way.

After approx. 5 hours you will be picked-up and transferred back to the lodge.

PRICE PER PERSON incl. transfer, guide, forest reserve fee & local lunch

1 Person 60 USD · 2 Persons 46 USD · 3 Persons 42 USD · 4 Persons 38 USD

CANOEING ON LAKE DULUTI

The quiet Lake Duluti is located in the vicinity of the small neighbouring village, Tengeru. It is of volcanic origin and lies in a lush forest reserve.

On our trip you will share a canoe with a guide to discover the lake. A great variety of bird species prevails here. If you're lucky, you might even spot a fish eagle or a cormorant. Monitor lizards live near the lakeshore and monkeys inhabit the surrounding woods.

On Wednesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays, the canoe trip can be combined with a guided visit to a local market and a traditional lunch (additional 15 USD/person).

ARUSHA NATIONAL PARK

Day trip to the beautiful nearby Arusha National Park in our 4x4 safari vehicle.

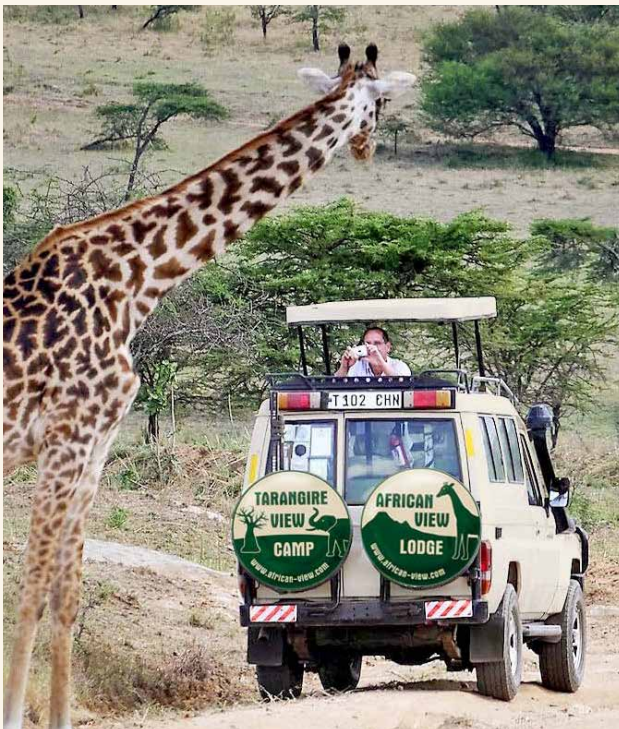

The game drive takes you up into the mountain rainforest as well as to the alkaline Momella Lakes with flocks of flamingos and, the Ngurdoto Crater. You will probably see giraffes, zebras, buffalos, warthogs, different antelopes, baboons, black & white colobus monkeys and, many species of birds.

On clear mornings, you might even see the snow-capped Kilimanjaro. However, it is not Kilimanjaro which dominates this park's horizon but, its "little brother", Mt. Meru.

Walking safaris (approx. 2 hours) guided by an armed ranger are very popular. It can be perfectly combined with the game drive (additional 35 USD/person).

PRICE PER PERSON incl. driver-guide, entrance fee & hot lunch
